I. OVERVIEW

The UGA School of Social Work has been preparing students for challenging and rewarding careers in social work for more than four decades. We opened our doors in 1964 with eight professors, 24 students, and one graduate degree program. Today our School has over 30 faculty members and a student body numbering over 600. It is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education to award the Master of Social Work (MSW) degree.

The School has policies and procedures unique to its functioning within the University of Georgia (UGA). This handbook contains pertinent information, policies, and procedures particular to the MSW program. The Field Handbook provides additional information pertaining to the requirements for our experiential field education. All Master of Social Work students should be familiar with both handbooks.

The School of Social Work offers the following four degrees: Bachelor of Social Work (BSW), Master of Social Work (MSW), Master of Arts in Nonprofit Management and Leadership (MA MNL), and the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.). Dual master degrees are offered in public health (MSW/MPH), law (MSW/JD) and theology (MSW/MDiv). The MSW/MDiv dual degree is offered in collaboration with Emory University.

A number of graduate certificates are also available to MSW students including the Marriage and Family Therapy Certificate, the Certificate in Nonprofit Management and Leadership, and the Certificate in Gerontology.

Code of Ethics

The National Association of Social Workers has codified a set of standards regarding professional responsibility to clients, to social work colleagues, to employing organizations, to the social work profession, and to society. The Code of Ethics is available online: <http://www.naswdc.org/pubs/code/default.asp>.

II. MSW PROGRAM MISSION, VALUES, & GOALS [AS 1.0]

Program Mission

[Accreditation Standard 1.0.1; 1.0.2]

The Master of Social Work program of the University of Georgia School of Social Work prepares graduate students for advanced social work practice. We strive to develop future leaders in the profession of social work who are able to meet the ever-changing challenges facing people of Georgia, the nation and the world.

This mission is consistent with that of the University of Georgia, the state's oldest, most comprehensive and most diversified institution of higher education. Its motto, "to teach, to serve, and to inquire into the nature of things," reflects the University's integral and unique role in the conservation and enhancement of the state's and nation's intellectual, cultural, and environmental heritage. In addition, the MSW program mission is consistent with the school's mission to provide local, state, national, and international leadership to promote social and economic justice, to alleviate oppressive social conditions and problems, and to enhance human well-being.

Similarly, the mission of the MSW program is interlinked with that of the BSW program, whose mission is to prepare students for entry-level social work practice; the PhD program, whose mission is to prepare social work professionals for careers in academic research settings and for practice in program evaluation and other forms of scientific research in the public and private sectors; and the MA NML program, which prepares students for careers in the nonprofit sector.

Program Vision

We envision a world where social workers are at the forefront of advocating on behalf of individuals, communities and service agencies in empowering the oppressed, promoting social justice, using the best science to resolve grand challenges, and celebrating the many aspects of diversity.

Program Values

We are committed to addressing power and oppression in society in order to promote social justice by using evidence informed practice and advocacy tools and the celebration of diversity (ProSEAD). In short, our values include a commitment to:

PrOSEAD

Addressing -      Power and Oppression;
Promoting -      Social justice;
Using -            Evidence-informed practice and Advocacy,
                                 and
Celebrating -    Diversity

Power

Certain sections of populations are more privileged than others in accessing resources due to historical or contemporary factors related to class, race, gender, etc. Our curriculum will prepare students to: (i) identify and acknowledge privilege issues both in society as well as at the practitioner/client level; (ii) use this understanding to inform their practice in order to competently serve clients who experience disenfranchisement and marginalization.

Oppression

Social work practice across the micro-macro spectrum should work to negate the effects of oppression or acts of oppression locally, nationally and globally. Our curriculum will prepare students to more effectively empower oppressed groups and prevent further oppression among various populations within the contexts of social, cultural, economic, political, and environmental frameworks.

Social Justice

Social workers understand that human rights and social justice, as well as social welfare and services, are mediated by policy and its implementation at the federal, state, and local levels. Our curriculum will prepare students to engage in policy practice at the local, state, federal, or international levels in order to impact social justice, well-being, service delivery, and access to social services of our clients, communities and organizations.

Evidence Informed Practice

Social workers understand that the clients' clinical state is affected not only by individual-level factors but also by social, economic, and political factors. We are also cognizant that research shows varied levels of evidence for practice approaches with various clients or populations. Our curriculum will prepare students to engage in evidence-informed practice. This includes finding and employing the best available evidence to select practice interventions for every client or group of clients, while also incorporating client preferences and actions, clinical state, and circumstances.

Advocacy

Every person regardless of position in society has fundamental human rights to freedom, safety, privacy, an adequate standard of living, health care and education. Our curriculum will prepare students to apply their understanding of social, economic, and environmental justice and their knowledge of effective advocacy and systems change skills to advocate for human rights at the individual and system levels.

Diversity

Social workers need to understand how diversity and difference characterize and shape the human experience and are critical to the formation of identity. Our curriculum will produce students who are able to engage, embrace, and cherish diversity and difference across all levels of practice.

Program Goals

[Accreditation Standard 1.0.3]

Graduates of the UGA School of Social Work will demonstrate knowledge, skills, and leadership in the following five program outcomes that are derived from our mission. Associated with each of these outcomes are the competencies specified by our accrediting body, the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE).

1. Engage in advanced social work practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities to enable inclusion in the context of cultural diversity and persons in the immediate and global environments; [EPAS Competencies 2, 6, & 7]
2. Uphold the principles, values, and ethics of the social work profession through reflection, awareness, and with consideration of the broader contexts of the world in which we live; [EPAS Competencies 1, 2, & 3]
3. Utilize knowledge and theories of biological, psychological, social, spiritual, and cultural dimensions of human development to inform practice; [EPAS Competencies 1, 2, 4, & 8]
4. Engage as critical consumers and producers of research and evaluation applied to practice at the clinical, community, policy, and administrative levels; [EPAS Competencies 4, 8, & 9]
5. Influence social policies consistent with the goals of the profession to address poverty and advocate for vulnerable, oppressed populations, and challenge power imbalances that affect resource distribution; [EPAS Competencies 3 & 6]

The Student Faculty Committee

The School of Social Work Student Faculty Committee (SFC) represents students' interests and needs at the MSW program. Students elect their own SFC representatives each fall and the SFC elects its own leaders. The SFC meets about twice a month and the meetings are open to all MSW students, faculty and staff at the SSW. Any individual wanting to speak to the group is welcome to do so.

The MSW director and two SSW faculty are members of the SFC and serve as mentors and key contacts to the SFC. Faculty members shall generally serve on the Committee for at least one calendar year, beginning at the start of the fall semester and ending in the spring semester of that same school year. A faculty member may serve on the Committee for consecutive terms; this will be encouraged when it results in staggered terms among faculty members for the sake of creating overlap and continuity.

Term limits do not apply to ex officio faculty members. One member of the SFC is part of the MSW faculty Committee where he/she represents MSW student issues to the MSW Faculty Committee.

The goal of the SFC is to foster understanding and open communication between Athens MSW students, faculty and administration, as well as to advance the reputation and facilitate the expansion of the MSW program.

The SFC has had a voice in key issues at the SSW since it was established in 1969. Most recently these include the 2016 dean search, the 2017 revision and reorganization of the MSW curriculum, and advocating for better facilities. The SFC is critical to the school's mission and vision.

III. MSW COMPETENCIES AND BEHAVIORS

Our ProSEAD values as well as our school's vision and mission statements shape the curriculum. A set of five program outcomes are aimed at preparing students to become activist practitioners engaged in micro, macro and/or integrated practice. The CSWE competencies offer a foundation on which we have built our curriculum. Implicit in the SSW Mission Statement is our view of social work education as committed to viewing students as future leaders and as informed and collaborative members of broader learning communities charged with addressing power and oppression; promoting social justice; using the relevant evidence to inform practice at all levels, while celebrating the vast diversity in our local, national and global communities.

The courses that address the major curriculum content areas are organized to promote horizontal and vertical integration through a logical flow within and between the generalist and advanced content. By reviewing course learning objectives and syllabi, it is possible to see the logic of course content sequencing. Students are encouraged to bring their relevant professional and life experiences into the classroom to enrich the learning environment.

Specifically, the courses meet the nine CSWE core competencies and generalist behaviors as well as our concentration behaviors. Each competency describes the knowledge, values, skills, and cognitive and affective processes that comprise the competency, followed by a set of behaviors that integrate these components. The behaviors represent observable components of the competencies, similar to the manner in which manifest items represent underlying latent constructs.

Students are also expected to be familiar with the academic requirements and information presented on the SSW website, this handbook, the Field Manual, and to follow School of Social Work and Graduate School's guidelines and requirements. Failure to do this could delay graduation.

4. Communicate evaluation results to the appropriate audience.

IV. MSW CURRICULUM AND PROGRAMS OF STUDY

MSW Program Curriculum

The MSW program offers three concentrations or areas of specialization:

- 1) Micro Practice Concentration
- 2) Macro Practice Concentration, and
- 3) Integrated/Combined Practice Concentration.

Students have the option of completing one of these three concentrations. The Micro Concentration prepares students with knowledge and skills for advanced practice primarily focused on individuals, families, and groups in diverse settings. The Macro Concentration provides students with knowledge and skills in an array of advanced practice roles in the areas of program and policy development, administration, supervision, political advocacy, and community practice. The Integrated/Combined Concentration pools the core curriculum of both the Micro and Macro Practice Concentrations. All concentrations prepare graduates for future professional leadership positions, and they are augmented by a selection of electives [EP 2.1.1].

The three concentrations are preceded by the Generalist curriculum which prepares students for generalist practice. The MSW program requirements include course work, and Generalist and concentration field practicum experiences. The requirements may be completed in the two-year full-time offering, the three- or four-year extended-time offering, or the one-year+ Advanced Standing option. As noted, there are additional opportunities for dual degrees as well as certificates.

Students may undertake their graduate education in the School of Social Work (SSW) as traditional two-year, advanced standing, or as extended-time students. Extended-time and some advanced-standing students are admitted and complete the program at the Gwinnett campus. Advanced standing students are qualified graduates of a Bachelor of Social Work program accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). Traditional students are required to complete sixty (60) credit hours of graduate study. Forty-four (44) of these credits hours come from classroom course work; the remaining sixteen (16) credit hours come from field educational courses.

Field placements consist of four semesters of supervised practice in approved settings such as youth programs, hospitals, mental health clinics, or schools, to name a few. The field experience is a combined 912 hours of professionally supervised field experience and a professional field-integrating seminar that introduces students to professional social work practice.

The Generalist year includes 312 combined hours of professionally supervised field practice experience in conjunction with a field-integrating seminar [72 in the fall (SOWK 7115) and 240 in the spring (SOWK 7125)]. In the concentration year, there is a total of 600 hours (SOWK 7225) of supervised field practice; there is no field-integrating seminar in the concentration year and students infuse their field experience into the classroom. For advanced standing students, 600 combined hours of professionally supervised field practice are required at a minimum. The School of Social Work does not approve academic credit for prior work or life experience. For those interested in using their work place as an internship site, please contact the Field Office for clarifications.

In order to achieve the behaviors mentioned above, students complete Generalist (this does not apply to Advanced Standing students) and concentration courses. Generalist courses are designed to meet Generalist behaviors while concentration courses are designed to meet concentration behaviors. The courses are arranged in specific programs of study. Students choose a program of study at the beginning of their program and are expected to adhere to its timeline. Failure to follow a chosen program of study may lead to delays in matriculation. In order to be able to graduate, MSW students complete a total of sixty (60) credit hours while advanced standing students complete a total of forty (40) credit hours.

Full-Time and Extended-Time Options

Students are admitted to either the full-time (two-years or Advanced Standing) option or the extended-time options (three years or four years). Course offerings for the full-time program are scheduled in Athens, primarily between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Course offerings for the extended-time program are scheduled at the Gwinnett campus, primarily between the hours of 5:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. Only full-time students may pre-register for courses scheduled for full-time students, and only extended-time students may pre-register for courses scheduled for extended-time students. At late registration, any student may register for any courses with vacant seats.

A Generalist or concentration student may transfer from the full-time program to the extended-time program or vice versa with the approval of her/his advisor, the MSW program director, and the associate dean. Approval is subject to the availability of space in the program requested. Since the cycle of courses for extended-time and full-time programs varies greatly, students requesting a transfer to extended-time or full-time should anticipate significant delays in moving into the new cycle of courses. Requests must be made in writing and endorsed by the student's academic adviser in Athens or Gwinnett coordinator for extended-time students.

Electives Outside the School of Social Work

The SSW encourages interdisciplinary education as demonstrated in our dual degree programs and certificates. You may also take electives outside of the SSW in lieu of the electives being offered within our program. The electives must be at the 6000, 7000, and 8000-level course offering. Suggested disciplines include Education, Family and Consumer Sciences, Sociology, Psychology, or Public Health. It is recommended that you seek the advice of your academic adviser when selecting electives. Sometimes, electives taken outside the SSW also require the permission of those departments in order for a SSW student to enroll. The outside elective form in addendum D must be approved by the MSW Program director before a SSW student can enroll into the outside elective.

Independent Study

A student may petition the faculty of the School of Social Work for the approval and oversight of an independent study. An independent study can be for 1-3 credits and must be approved by the sponsoring faculty member and the director of the MSW program. A strong justification is required for students and faculty requesting more than 3 credit hours for an independent study. The student petition must include the essential components of a standard course outline (i.e., description of study, course objectives, program outcomes, competencies, and behaviors format, as well as assignments and texts, as appropriate). An independent study cannot replace material covered in offered courses and needs to be aligned with our Values, Vision and Mission Statements. MSW students are not allowed to substitute independent study courses for core courses.

In order to enroll in an independent study course:

1. The student must submit a formal request to his/her academic adviser and to his/her proposed course instructor. The proposed independent study must be related to the student's program of study and should clearly delineate learning objectives, activities, and intended outcomes.
2. The proposal must be approved by the proposed course instructor and MSW Program director prior to registration.
3. An approved copy also must be submitted to the MSW Program Office, which will arrange for the student to enroll in the independent research course.

The independent study course is known as SOWK 7908: Independent Social Work Research, and may only be taken once in a student's time in the MSW program.

Course Registration and Academic Advisement

Course registration is completed online by logging into UGA ATHENA homepage: https://sis-sis-prod.uga.edu/PROD/twbkwbis.P\_GenMenu?name=homepage. The MSW Academic Adviser handles all academic advisement issues for Athens students while for Gwinnett students, the Gwinnett program coordinators serves as the academic adviser. The responsibility of the academic advisers is to ensure that students follow through their programs of study by enrolling for the right courses at the right time. However, it is the sole responsibility of the students to enroll into the courses on time. Failure to do so can delay graduation.

Professional Advisement

Students are assigned a faculty member as their professional adviser in their Generalist year. The role of the faculty adviser is to serve as a mentor for the student; providing professional advice to the student and assisting the student in making the best use of their time at the SSW in order for students to begin a path to realize their future professional goals. After the Generalist year, MSW students can choose any faculty member and develop a mentor/mentee professional advising relationship – this arrangement encourages initiative from students and helps them to choose a faculty member who is more closely aligned with their future professional goals. Faculty field liaisons help students with any issues related to the successful completion of the field internship experience.

Specialty Areas and Certificate Programs

Child Welfare Program

The School of Social Work offers an emphasis in child welfare as a field of practice for students interested in clinical social work practice or supervision and administration in the child welfare area. Students select elective courses to support a child welfare emphasis. Graduates with this emphasis are employed in public and private agencies providing a broad range of services to families and children, including: protection for abused and neglected children, family preservation, family counseling, family crisis intervention, foster care, adoption, group home and institutional group care, child and adolescent mental health, rape crisis intervention, problem pregnancy, and others. The UGA School of Social Work, in partnership with the Division of Family and Children Services (DFCS), has federal Title IV-E funding for full-time and extended-time students. The DFCS Professional Development Section assists students with employment upon graduation. Contact Dr. Alberta Ellett at (706) 542-5409 or aellett@uga.edu for further information.

Selected Certificate Programs at UGA

The School of Social Work participates in four inter-departmental certificate programs: Gerontology, Nonprofit Management, Marriage and Family Therapy, and Disabilities Services.

Students may meet some of the requirements for these certificates through their MSW program of study but should plan one or more semesters of additional study beyond the MSW for their completion. Certificates are considered a supplement to the MSW program of study and do not take precedence in the curriculum planning process. The School of Social Work does not control the scheduling of non-social work certificate courses.

Gerontology

The Gerontology Center at the University of Georgia offers a graduate program of study in gerontology, awarding students the Graduate Certificate of Gerontology. The program is interdisciplinary and contains sufficient flexibility to permit students to tailor the focus of the certificate work to their particular interests. The curriculum consists of 18 semester credit hours of graduate level courses. Twelve of these credits must be taken from four categories of: Biology/Physiology, Psychology, Sociology, and research or practicum. In addition, Seminar in Aging (GRNT 6000) is required for the certificate. An application and detailed booklet may be obtained from the Gerontology Center at (706) 542-2539 or gerontology@uga.edu. https://www.publichealth.uga.edu/geron/sites/default/files/UGAGerontology\_CertificateProgramManual.pdf. Contact Dr. Tiffany Washington at twashing@uga.edu or 706-542-5471.

Marriage and Family Therapy

The Pre-Professional Graduate Certificate Program in Marriage and Family Therapy is designed to provide an interdisciplinary program for graduate students interested in the applied field of marriage and family therapy. Students who are enrolled in a graduate program at the University of Georgia in the College of Education, the College of Family and Consumer Sciences, or the School of Social Work are eligible to apply. Completion of the requirements for the certificate program will provide a strong academic basis for preparing the student to undertake further supervised clinical training in marriage and family therapy and to integrate theory and practice from a family systems perspective. The certificate program is not intended to provide all the training necessary to function as an independent professional nor to meet all the requirements for (a) state licensure as a marriage and family therapist, or (b) clinical membership in the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy. The certificate program may meet the course requirements, but not the experience requirements, for MFT licensure in Georgia. MFT Pre-Professional Certificate courses are offered in several units of the University of Georgia, including the Department of Child and Family Development, the Department of Counseling and Human Development, and the School of Social Work. For more information, contact Dr. Michael Robinson, marobi01@uga.edu or 706-542-5425, MFT Coordinator, School of Social Work. For forms and more information go to, http://www.fcs.uga.edu/docs/MFT\_Certificate\_Handbook\_version2016withCompletion.pdf

Nonprofit Management and Leadership

The Certificate in Nonprofit Management is for graduate students in majors other than the Master of Arts in Nonprofit Management and Leadership (MA MNL) who complete four of the core courses in the nonprofit curriculum. This certificate program will help meet the need for understanding the nonprofit organizations that provide employment for many graduates. The program consists of a minimum of 4 courses of 3 semester hours each, drawn from the core courses of the Master's degree curriculum of the Institute. For more information, contact Dr. Tony Mallon at (706) 542-5467 or ajmallon@uga.edu. For more information go to http://ssw.uga.edu/nonprofit/nonprofit\_certificate.html

Disability Studies

The purpose of the Disability Studies Certificate is to provide students with the knowledge, skills, and attitudes needed to become professionals and leaders capable of implementing change in attitudes, policy, and practice across the nation. These professionals will promote the true inclusion of individuals with disabilities as fully-participating members of our communities and nation, with all the rights accorded to every citizen. For more information go to <http://www.fcs.uga.edu/ihdd/disability-studies-certificate>.

Environmental Ethics

The Environmental Ethics Certificate Program (EECP) is a non-degree program offered at the University of Georgia as an enhancement to an undergraduate or graduate degree. The EECP is an interdisciplinary program, drawing faculty and students from many different departments on campus. We are formally part of the College of Environment and Design. The Program seeks to unify people from a diversity of disciplines in discussion and decision-making about environmental problems that involve competing values. The program provides a forum where philosophers, scientists and people from all other disciplines can discuss social and scientific responsibilities toward our environment in a rational manner which clearly defines problems, considers all the information, and maintains our values. We accomplish this by offering an Undergraduate and Graduate Certificate in Environmental Ethics, and by holding twelve annual seminars, two annual Philosopher's Walks and occasional conferences. For more information, visit the certificate program website at, <http://www.uga-eeep.com/>

Native American Studies

The Institute of Native American Studies offers graduate and undergraduate certificate programs. These programs permit students to earn UGA degrees in any field, while earning a separate credential attesting to special expertise in Native American Studies. A certificated degree in Native American Studies is an ideal springboard for any number of future endeavors. Those who earn the certificate could work for native populations or any number of public or private agencies that have dealings with Native Americans. Those with the graduate certificate could teach in their underlying discipline or in Native American Studies. For more information go to: <http://www.instituteofnativeamericanstudies.com/>

Women's Studies

The University of Georgia Institute for Women's Studies provides a feminist interdisciplinary perspective on women and gender. Administratively a program in the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences, Women's Studies cooperates with departments of all schools and colleges of the University in developing its curriculum and programming. Traditional academic disciplines have devoted little systematic attention to issues of gender, race, class, and sexuality. In the past 30 years, feminist scholars have contributed to the reinterpretation of existing data and to the presentation of new knowledge about the diversity of women's experiences. Through course work and outreach, the Institute for Women's Studies offers students an opportunity to explore women's lives in global and multicultural contexts. The Women's Studies Program offers a 15-hour graduate certificate in Women's Studies. The certificate is available to students who are currently pursuing a graduate degree or who already have a graduate degree. The purpose of the certificate is to expose students to the rapidly expanding interdisciplinary scholarship on women that might otherwise be neglected in their traditional curricula. Interested graduate students must first contact the program advisor to submit an application and to select an interdisciplinary program of study. For more information contact Dr. Mary Caplan at caplan@uga.edu at 706-542-5431 or go to: <http://iws.uga.edu/students/graduate-certificate-womens-studies>.

Global Health

The University of Georgia Center for Global Health educates and prepares students for leadership positions that have an international dimension. The Center offers comprehensive programs of study and numerous opportunities for service and study abroad. Our field internships help students to apply their knowledge outside of the classroom. Field experiences help to break down preconceived notions about causes and solutions to global health problems and illustrate the complexity of the issues. Experiencing the local realities of health problems first hand while at internship locations provides students with another viewpoint to take with them into their careers. The Graduate Certificate in Global Health aims to:

- Increase understanding of the global character of health problems
- Demonstrate the need for a multi-disciplinary approach to solving global health problems
- Develop skills that enable efforts to address global health problems
- Develop knowledge that will assist in advocacy for the solution of global health problems

For more information, contact ghcertif@uga.edu or go to the certificate website at <http://ghi.publichealth.uga.edu/global-health-courses/>

Qualitative Studies

The University of Georgia Program in Qualitative Research provides an interdisciplinary perspective on qualitative research design and methods for the social, human, and professional sciences. Administratively a program in the Department of Lifelong Education, Administration, and Policy in the College of Education, the Qualitative Research Program, in developing its curriculum and programming, cooperates with departments of all schools and colleges of the University that study human behavior and experience. Since the 1970s, mainstream research has undergone a shift from a field dominated by measurement, deduction, and prediction to one that accommodates a perspective that emphasizes description, induction, and understanding from the perspective of those being studied--a qualitative approach. Sponsored by the College of Education, the School of Social Work, the College of Family and Consumer Sciences, and the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences, the Interdisciplinary Qualitative Studies Graduate Certificate Program was approved in 2001 to provide a systematic, coordinated structure to institutionalize the study of qualitative research at the University of Georgia. The program is supported by a multidisciplinary faculty of scholars dedicated to improve professional practice and scholarship through active collaboration and critical self-reflection in the use of a broad range of qualitative methods. The community is guided by a set of values that honors diversity through the active inclusion of members who are broadly representative of the disciplines that comprise the modern university and the cultures to be found in today's democratic society. ## Dual Degrees

MSW/MPH Dual Degree Program

The Graduate School of the University of Georgia offers a dual degree program in social work and public health. The primary objective of the MSW-MPH dual degree program is to supplement the professional education of Social Work students with additional specialization and training in Public Health, and vice versa. Social Work and Public Health are, by design, service professions that support human well-being. Completion of this program leads to the degrees of MSW and MPH with a concentration in Health Promotion and Behavior. For more information, contact Dr. David Okech regarding the MSW program, Dr. Jessica Mullenburg for the Health Promotion & Behavior MPH concentration, and Dr. Kerstin Emerson for the Gerontology MPH concentration.

MSW/M.Div. Dual Degree Program

The MSW/M.Div. dual degree program is the first in the state of Georgia. Students enrolled in this dual degree program will complete a 135-hour curriculum and can be in the Clinical Practice Concentration or the Community Empowerment and Program Development Concentration in the School of Social Work and the Candler College of Theology. This dual degree program integrates the knowledge, values and skills offered by the existing M.S.W. and M.Div. professional degree programs with a unique focus that addresses issues of grief, loss, and bereavement. The graduates of this program will address a critical societal need for social work-based social services that are responsive to faith-based needs of clients served. This unique combined training will prepare the graduates to assist people struggling to identify their ultimate concerns, sense of meaning and purpose, as well as providing them with strategies for coping during times of tragedy and adversity. Contact Dr. Y. Joon Choi at choiyj@uga.edu for more information.

MSW/JD Dual Degree Program

The Graduate School of the University of Georgia offers a Dual Degree Program between the School of Social Work and the School of Law. This combines the M.S.W. degree and the JD degree, and is designed to promote the integration of legal as well as social work knowledge and skills at fully professional levels. Similar to other dual degree programs approved by the Graduate School, this program would account for the professional requirements of a master's level social worker and the professional requirements of a law school graduate. Graduates of this program will be able to account for the legal interventions required by individuals or organizations as clients, while at the same time accounting for the social work services needed by the same individuals or organizations. For more information contact Dr. Shari Miller at (706) 542-2328 or semiller@uga.edu.

Global Engagement

The UGA School of Social Work is enriched by international students and is proud of its study abroad programs in Ghana and Northern Ireland. Faculty have pursued projects in countries such as Haiti, China, Mexico and South Korea. Students have independently participated in programs in Cambodia, Latin America and elsewhere. Additionally, the International Social Work Student Association (ISWSA) enthusiastically promotes the international dimensions of social work at "home" through a variety of activities.

Global education faculty encourage the development of international partnerships and practicum sites. The UGA School of Social Work also maintains a close working relationship with the UGA Office of International Education.

The SSW offers electives that address global social work practice and policy issues as well as immigration and other international issues. The SSW also offers an opportunity for supervised field placement in Ghana. Contact the field office if you are interested in this opportunity.

The Ghana Service Learning Program is a six-credit education abroad allows students to participate in community-based activities, seminar-style classes with Ghanaian lecturers, as well as service and learning project in child and family services institutions For more information, see <http://sww.uga.edu/academics/ghana.html#program> or contact Dr. Tiffany Washington at twashing@uga.edu.

The six-credit Social Issues in Northern Ireland class travels to Northern Ireland to get firsthand exposure to the transgenerational impact of the violence from the four-decade long conflict in Northern Ireland known as "The Troubles." Economic injustice, oppression and discrimination are among the hallmarks of the divide between the Protestants and Catholics of Northern Ireland. For more information, see <http://ssw.uga.edu/academics/northernireland.html> or contact Dr. Michael Robinson at marobi@uga.edu.

For more information about global education opportunities at the school, contact Jane McPherson, Director of Global Engagement, at (706) 542-3938 or jmcperson@uga.edu.

Note for Advanced Standing Students: Advanced Standing students need to plan in advance to be able to take the education abroad courses. Advanced Standing students can take the SOWK 7218 [4 credits] PROSEAD-AS course plus one of the education abroad programs to fulfill the required hours in the beginning of their program. The MSW program will provide more specialized advising to Advanced Standing students who are interested in participating in either the Ghana or Northern Ireland programs. Such students must Contact Ms. Daphney Smith at dsmith@uga.edu as soon as they are admitted for a specialized program of study.

VI. ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

MSW Program Academic Policies

(Revised March 21, 2014)

- MSW students must satisfactorily complete all core courses. The program does not allow exemptions for core courses
- MSW students are not allowed to substitute independent study courses for core courses
- MSW students must maintain a 3.0 grade point average, which is in line with current UGA Graduate School policy
- In accordance with UGA Graduate School policy, a student whose GPA falls below 3.0 will be placed on academic probation
- MSW students must also earn a grade of at least B or higher in Foundation Social Work Practice with Individuals and Families (SOWK 7114), Foundation Practicums (SOWK 7115, 7125), and Concentration Practicum (SOWK 7225)
- A grade of C- or lower will not be counted towards graduation requirements in the MSW program
- For elective courses, the Graduate School stipulates that any grade of C- or lower will not be accepted on a Program of Study to graduate. If a student receives a grade of C- or lower, the student must retake the failed elective course

Academic Participation Policy

Graduate education is demanding and exacting. Students are expected to exhibit professional behavior, which includes attitude, preparedness, timely submission of assignments, participation in class discussions and required class attendance. While we understand illnesses and emergencies occur, instructors expect students to inform them as soon as possible -- preferably before or very soon after missing a class or a deadline. Students must notify their instructors of any class absences. The expectation is that students will respond to this outreach.

Academic Appeals

Students have the right to appeal academic decisions. See Appendix B for more information.

Acceptance of Credit by Transfer

If graduate credit earned at an accredited institution constitutes a logical part of the student's program, transfer of credit may be allowed when recommended by the student's major professor and graduate coordinator, and when approved by the dean of the Graduate School. Such transfer of credit cannot exceed six semester hours and must fall within the time limit of the degree. Transfer credit cannot be used to fulfill the requirement that 12 semester hours on the program of study be open only to graduate students. No grade below B may be transferred. The courses to be transferred may not have been used in a degree program at another institution. Transfer grades are not used in calculating cumulative averages. All requests for transfer credit, with accompanying official transcripts, must be in the Graduate School by the midpoint of the semester in which the student plans to graduate. Please see: <http://grad.uga.edu/index.php/current-students/policies-procedures/academics/acceptance-of-credit-by-transfer/> for more details.

The SSW reserves the right to require transfer students to enroll in SOWK 7118 [3 credits] Addressing the Bases of Power, Oppression, Social Justice, Evidence-Informed Practice, Advocacy, and Diversity (ProSEAD) as part of their programs of study.

Communication of Program Information

Each MSW student in Athens is assigned a mailbox in the SSW Building. There are no mailboxes in Gwinnett. Once accepted to a program, a student will also be added to the MSW email listserve. Important information is communicated via students' UGA Mail accounts on both campuses. Students are expected to monitor their email for important information. If you have questions or concerns about email issues, contact your program's administrative assistant.

Expectations for Professional Behavior

All MSW students are expected to conduct themselves according to the following policies, procedures, guidelines, and expectations. Students are responsible for seeking clarification of any aspect of the conduct code about which they have questions, especially in the event of receiving written notice of conduct concerns and/or violations.

It is expected that students will:

1. Read and agree to comply with the policies and procedures outlined in the MSW Student Handbook:
  - a) Content: Policies and procedures, including the UGA Student Honor Code, which governs the conduct of all UGA students: <https://ovpi.uga.edu/academic-honesty/academic-honesty-policy/student-honor-code>. Academic Honesty is part of the overall Code of conduct, but it also includes other non-academic expectations that students are accountable for. https://conduct.uga.edu/content\_page/code-of-conduct. The Code of Conduct has been developed by Student Conduct to provide students with expectations for behavior that upholds the principles outlined in the Pillars of the Arch. In addition to describing regulations for behavior, the Code of Conduct provides useful information to students and student organizations regarding alleged violations of conduct regulations. All procedures for responding to possible violations of conduct

- regulations, including specifics of the conduct process, a listing of possible sanctions, the interim suspension policy, and the appeals procedures are included in the Code of Conduct. These procedures have been established to ensure due process and fundamental fairness to all involved in the University's judicial processes.
- b) Context: Applies to all on-campus and UGA-sponsored off-campus activities, including clinical observations, clinical practice, international education, and community service.
2. Become familiar with our profession's Code of Ethics (including, but not limited to, NASW and IFSW), and to uphold these standards as well as standards for professional behavior in all relevant settings.
  3. Embody the School's vision, mission, and values. (Please refer to pages 6 and 7 of this handbook for more details).
  4. Adopt and progressively develop skills and abilities during their course of study and to endeavor to maintain these standards in all online, on-campus and UGA-sponsored off-campus activities, including clinical and fieldwork experiences, international education, and relevant community service. These specific professional behaviors include the demonstration of:
    - a) Communication Skills – communicate effectively and respectfully (i.e., verbal, non-verbal, electronically, reading, writing, and listening) for varied audiences and purposes. Communication should be timely, responsive to the requests of faculty, field instructors, peers, and to the School, and University as a whole. Students are expected to read all communications posted by the School of Social Work and are responsible for staying abreast of current and ongoing information pertinent to their roles as graduate and professional students.
    - b) Interpersonal Skills – interact effectively and respectfully with clients, families, groups, communities, and agencies.
    - c) Cultural Sensitivity – show interest in different cultural perspectives/circumstances, practice respect, and acknowledge plus celebrate diversity.
    - d) Use of Time and Resources – manage time and resources effectively to obtain the maximum possible benefit.
    - e) Responsibility – be accountable for the outcomes of personal and professional actions and to follow through on commitments that encompass the profession within the scope of work, field internships, class group work, community and social responsibilities.
    - f) Critical Thinking – question logically; identify, generate and evaluate elements of logical argument; recognize and differentiate facts, appropriate or faulty inferences and assumptions; and distinguish relevant from irrelevant information. Utilize, analyze, and critically interpret scientific evidence to develop a logical argument, and to understand how bias affects the decision making process.
    - g) Use of Constructive Feedback – solicit and identify quality sources of feedback, reflect on and integrate the feedback, and provide meaningful feedback to others.
    - h) Commitment to Learning – self-directed learning and continually seek and apply new knowledge, behaviors, values, and skills.

- i) Self-care – identify sources of stress and implement effective coping behaviors in relation to self, clients and their families, members of the intervention team and in life balance.
5. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with the policies and procedures of host institutions for their clinical or field work placements and to act in accordance with those guidelines. Students should refer to the relevant policies of the specific institution and/or consult with clinical preceptors or supervisors.
6. Dress appropriately for the professional context and institutional setting, whether in a campus, community, or clinical setting. Usually this means “business casual” attire unless the clinical facility or fieldwork setting, or a specific event requires alternate attire. Nametags may be required or recommended in many settings. When in doubt, students should consult with their clinical instructor, site supervisor, or faculty liaison about specific dress code expectations or requirements at a particular facility or for a specific event.
7. Delivery of safe, competent care and related services, all of which underscore all aspects of professional practice. Specific standards of physical, social, and emotional safety are often defined within courses and clinical teaching sites. Accordingly, students are expected to demonstrate behaviors that uphold those standards. Failure to do may result in a referral for academic and professional advising and/or a referral to the Academic Professional Review Committee.

Academic Professional Review Policy

The purpose of the MSW Program Academic and Professional Review (APR) process is to review and provide a disposition in matters related to MSW student academic and field performance, including professional ethics and behavior. See Appendix A for more information.

Social Media

Facebook and other social media sites provide a forum for students to connect, network, and support each other. It is not surprising that social workers are drawn to using this mode of communication! Here are some “ground rules” for appropriate and professional use of social media established by our school:

1. Please refer to the NASW Code of Ethics to guide your communication on Facebook or other social media with your peers and future colleagues.
2. Information posted online is part of the public domain and is a reflection of how you conduct yourself in the professional social work arena. We expect our students to conduct themselves professionally at all times.
3. Posting of other students’ work without permission may have legal implications and can be experienced by others as disrespectful and unprofessional.

4. Anything you write in an e-mail, text, tweet, or on social media sites is stored electronically, out of your control and can be copied or distributed without your prior knowledge, or subpoenaed for legal cause.
5. Discussion specifically calling out your peers, instructors, and administrators can be taken out of context, cause confusion, and provide fodder for gossip and misinformation. This, too, is a reflection of how you conduct yourself in the professional social work arena and is not consistent with our school policies or the NASW code of ethics.
6. Interpretation, questions or the need for clarification of course materials and syllabi should be directed to instructors for clarification.

We call upon our students to consider how well to represent themselves and the SSW in all aspects of their academic and professional lives.

NASW Membership

The National Association of Social Workers (NASW) has played a major role in establishing standards for the social work profession by working to enhance and ensure competency in the performance of individual members and to protect the right to practice. In addition to certification and licensing, NASW has established a program for liability insurance available to members. As NASW members, students will receive the Association newspaper and the professional journal, Social Work, and are eligible for health and professional liability insurance through the Association. Applications for NASW membership are available online at: <https://www.socialworkers.org/online-join/join.aspx>

Professional Liability Insurance

STUDENTS MUST BE INSURED WITH PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE DURING THEIR FIELD PRACTICUM. As NASW members, students are eligible for professional liability insurance through the Association. Since insurance applications cannot be approved until NASW membership is effective, students are advised to apply for NASW membership and insurance approximately six weeks in advance of the entry date into a practicum. Information about NASW Professional Liability Insurance is available at <http://www.naswassurance.org/students/>. While the Office of Field Education does not endorse or promote any specific insurance provider, a list has been compiled from Certificates of Insurance previously submitted by UGA SSW students. You may contact the Office of Field Education for this resource. This information is provided solely as a resource to assist future and returning students in expediting the selection and purchase of professional liability insurance. Please direct all questions regarding coverage to the relevant insurance provider.

The UGA Graduate School

The MSW program is guided by the UGA Graduate School policies and procedures on minimum enrollment, leave of absence, monitoring and compliance, and program exemption. See, <http://grad.uga.edu/index.php/current-students/policies-procedures/academics/enrollment-policy/>.

1. Graduate students must register for a minimum of 3 hours of credit during any semester in which they use University facilities and/or staff time. A student who holds an assistantship must register for a minimum of 12 hours of graduate credit fall and spring semesters and 9 hours of graduate credit during the summer semester.
2. All enrolled students pursuing graduate degrees at the University of Georgia must maintain continuous enrollment from matriculation until completion of all degree requirements. Continuous enrollment is defined as registering for a minimum of three (3) credits in at least two semesters per academic year (Fall, Spring, Summer), including the 3 hours of Graduate credit that is required for registration during the semester in which degree requirements are complete, until the degree is attained or status as a degree-seeking graduate student is terminated.
3. After the last day of each semester, any degree-seeking graduate student who has not maintained continuous enrollment by registering for the required credits or obtaining an approved leave of absence will lose their status as an enrolled graduate student.
4. To be eligible for graduation, a student must maintain an average of 3.0 (B) both on the graduate transcript and on all courses on the program of study. No grade below C (2.0) will be accepted as part of a program of study for a graduate degree.

Course Withdrawal Policies

Students may withdraw from a course for any reason. The withdrawal period lasts from the day after drop and add until the withdrawal deadline. The exact dates for withdrawal can be seen on the parts of term page, <http://www.reg.uga.edu/faculty-staff-services/student-withdrawal-information>. Once a withdrawal is processed for a course, the grade of W will be automatically assigned. Federal regulations require timely reporting of enrollment status changes so it is important that a grade is promptly assigned. Students who withdraw from courses before the withdrawal deadline (two weeks after the midpoint, as specified by the official calendar) will receive a grade of W. Withdrawals from courses will not be permitted after the withdrawal deadline except in cases of hardship as determined by the Office of Student Support Services. Students will not be able to withdraw from their coursework if they have an active financial or registration hold on their record.

Student Withdrawal for Military Health/Emergency Reasons: Student Care and Outreach provides assistance to students experiencing hardship circumstances. Students seeking to withdraw from courses due to hardship circumstances should contact Student Care and Outreach: <http://dos.uga.edu/sco/services>

To withdraw from a course:

1. Log on to Athena
2. Select "Student Records" under the "Student" tab
3. Select "Registration" then "Add or Drop Courses"
4. Under the "Action" column, select the withdraw option from the drop down on the appropriate course
5. Submit changes

See UGA course withdrawal policy at: <http://www.reg.uga.edu/policies/withdrawals>

Incompletes, Academic Probation, and Dismissal

If a student is unable to complete the requirements for a course, this situation must be discussed with the instructor and a contract agreed upon for resolving the incomplete work must be signed. The "incomplete" or "I" grade is reserved for circumstances beyond the student's control. Students should not assume that an incomplete will be granted. All incompletes must be completed and re-graded within three semesters otherwise, the "incomplete" will convert to a grade of "F". All "I's" must be completed by the beginning of the semester in which the student is scheduled to enter practicum. Failure to complete full responsibilities for course work may delay a student's entry into Field Placement.

The Graduate School places students with a cumulative graduate course average below 3.0 for two consecutive terms on academic probation. They then must make a 3.0 or higher semester graduate average each succeeding semester that their overall cumulative graduate average is below 3.0.

Students may be dismissed by their department at the end of any semester if they have not made sufficient academic progress to warrant continuance of study. Termination of students will follow policies and procedures adopted by the SSW and reported to the Graduate School. See <http://grad.uga.edu/index.php/current-students/policies-procedures/academics/probation-and-dismissal/> for more details on probation and dismissal.

Course Overloads

Social Work students taking more than 18 hours must have the approval of their academic advisor and the MSW program director prior to registering. Program policy requires the student to have a 3.0 overall GPA in order to take an overload. Exemptions can be made on a case-by-case basis. A full-time course load is nine hours per semester during the academic year and six hours during the summer semester. The maximum semester course load for any student is 18 hours per semester. For those students whose degree program officially requires more than 18 hours of credit per semester, the students will be limited to the program maximum. UGA course overload policies are found at: <http://grad.uga.edu/index.php/current-students/policies-procedures/academics/enrollment-policy/course-load/>.

Health Insurance

Through the University, students may purchase the relatively low-cost Voluntary Student Health Insurance Plan. Students should purchase this plan if not insured privately. In cases of accident, injury, or illness, neither the University nor the field practicum agency assumes any responsibility. Most field practicum agencies will require students to carry health insurance. Even in the rare case of client/patient-caused injury to the social work trainee, the student must assume complete financial responsibility for medical/health care. Be certain that you are covered and that you discuss health and safety matters with your prospective agency field instructor, as well as with your Faculty Liaison for the field agency. For more information visit <https://hr.uga.edu/students/student-health-insurance/voluntary-plan/>.

UGA Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy

The University of Georgia (“the University”) is committed to maintaining a fair and respectful environment for living, work and study. To that end, and in accordance with federal and state law, University System of Georgia policy, and University policy, the University prohibits harassment of or discrimination against any person because of race, color, sex (including sexual harassment and pregnancy), sexual orientation, gender identity, ethnicity or national origin, religion, age, genetic information, disability, or veteran status by any member of the University Community (as defined below) on campus, in connection with a University program or activity, or in a manner that creates a hostile environment for any member of the University Community. Incidents of harassment and discrimination will be met with appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal or expulsion from the University.

The complete policy may be found on the UGA Equal Opportunity Office website: <https://eoo.uga.edu/pdfs/NDAH.pdf>.

Academic Honesty Policy

Every student must agree to abide by UGA's academic honesty policy and procedures. The policy and the University of Georgia Student Honor Code work together to define a climate of academic honesty and integrity at the University.

All members of the University community have a responsibility to uphold and maintain an honest academic environment and to report when dishonesty occurs. Where suspected violations of the academic honesty policy occur, appropriate procedures are designed to protect the integrity of the academic process while ensuring due process. The University's academic honesty system is an academic process founded on educational opportunities.

The Office of Student Academic Services is responsible for managing the University's academic honesty process and supporting the UGA Student Academic Honesty Council in ensuring that information related to the academic honesty policy is available to all members of the University community.

For more information go to: <https://ovpi.uga.edu/academic-honesty/academic-honesty-policy> and <https://ovpi.uga.edu/academic-honesty/academic-honesty-policy/student-honor-code>.

APPENDIX A

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK GRADE APPEALS AND ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL PERFORMANCE POLICY

APPROVED BY FULL FACULTY ON NOVEMBER 18, 2011

Revised March 21, 2014

The fundamental recommendations are to: 1) have one grade appeals and student academic and professional performance policy for each of our four academic programs, and 2) have two standing committees that resolve grade appeals and student academic and professional performance matters. One committee is responsible for student grade appeals only, and the other with matters associated with a student's academic and professional performance. The following is a non-exhaustive list of possible academic and professional performance concerns:

1. Student receives a grade of B- or lower in field practicum or a highly negative mid-term or final semester field evaluation;
2. Student receives an overall cumulative grade point average below 3.0;
3. Student is dismissed from field practicum;
4. Student exhibits a pattern of behavior that is judged to hinder the student's development as a professional. Behaviors prescribed in the Code of Ethics of the National Association of Social Workers will be used by faculty as a guide.
5. Student receives B- or lower in any of the following courses: Foundation Social Work Practice with Individuals and Families (SOWK 7144), Foundation Practicum courses (SOWK 7115 and 7125), or Concentration Practicum (SOWK 7225)

Each committee will comprise three school of social work faculty, including chairpersons, who serve three-year staggered terms to ensure committee continuity. The chairperson and members will be elected by the full faculty, and the chairperson of each committee will be at the rank of associate professor or higher and be tenured.

Grade Appeals Committee

Student appeals of course grades should be directed to the chairperson of the grade appeals committee. Appeals must be filed with the committee chairperson within one calendar year from the end of the term in which the grade was recorded. Grade appeals must be made in writing by the student and must include the following information:

1. The decision that is being appealed;
2. Rationale for the appeal;
3. Expected outcome of the appeal; and
4. Documentation of efforts to resolve the issue at a lower level (i.e., with the course instructor).

Students must include supporting documentation (i.e., syllabi, graded assignments, copies of e-mail communication, etc.) with the letter of appeal. The committee chairperson will gather information from the Instructor of Record and others and consult with the committee to determine if a full committee review is needed. Primary criteria for a successful grade appeal are the demonstration that the grade was the result of a factual error, capricious or arbitrary grading, or that it was influenced by improper or unprofessional bias on the part of the instructor. The committee chairperson will poll the committee about the legitimacy of the grade appeal and communicate this decision to the student in writing within 14 days of receiving the request for an appeal. If the appeal is decided to be appropriate for a full committee review, the chairperson will convene the committee to review the appeal, to hear both the students and faculty member's perspective separately, and to render a decision on the matter. The committee's decision will be communicated in writing to the student and professor by the committee chairperson within 10 working days.

The committee can decide to either support the existing grade or recommend a modification. Grade appeal decisions can be appealed by the student to successive levels as listed:

- 1) MSW program director
- 2) Dean's Office of the School of Social Work,
- 3) Graduate School (for Graduate Students), and
- 4) Educational Affairs Committee of the University Council (for all students)

Academic and Professional Performance Committee

Concerns raised by faculty and/or a specific academic program about a student's academic status or professional conduct will be reviewed by this committee. Referrals of concerns initiated by faculty members or a program are to be made to the committee chairperson who, in turn, will collect information from appropriate faculty members, student's faculty advisor, and referring faculty member. Once the information has been collected, the committee chairperson will poll the committee to determine whether to initiate a full committee review. In the case that a full committee review is not recommended, the committee chairperson may recommend that the student, referring faculty member, and program director develop and document a plan to resolve the concern. Progress on goals should be monitored and documented. However, if a full committee review is recommended, the student, faculty advisor, and individual faculty member filing the concern will be notified in writing by the committee chairperson that a full review will occur. Additionally, the committee chairperson will notify the student of the specific concern being raised. A full committee review will require the committee to do the following:

1. Collect and review written and other materials related to the student's academic or professional performance;
2. Have the option of requesting to speak with the student and faculty member filing the concern separately (Likewise, the student and faculty member have the option of meeting with the committee, but separately);

3. Render a decision, which may include, but is not limited to: a) No action, b) Modification of program of study, c) Remediation plan, d) Placement on probationary status, e) Field placement change with or without remediation, f) Leave of absence, or g) Dismissal from the program

Finally, an unfavorable decision can be appealed at a series of successive levels. A committee's decision can be appealed to 1) The School of Social Work Program director (of the program in which the student is enrolled); program directors' decisions can be appealed to 2) the dean of the School of Social Work; the dean's decision can be appealed at the University level to 3) the Graduate School (for graduate students only), and 4) to the Educational Affairs Committee of the University Council (for all students). To appeal decisions within the School of Social Work, students should adhere to the following procedures:

- 1) Appeals must be made within 14 days of receiving a ruling
- 2) Appeals must be made in the form of a written letter that clearly and concisely explains the appeal and includes all supporting information and accompanying documentation
- 3) Appeal letters must include the student's full name, postal address, UGA email address, and phone number
- 4) Appeals may not be prepared on behalf of the student by another party
- 5) If an appeal is based on a medical or personal hardship, supporting documentation of that particular hardship must be provided

Once all appeal documents are submitted by the student, the party to whom the appeal is being made will do his/her best to render a decision within 30 days. However, if for some reason additional time is needed, the student will be informed by letter.

For appeals at the University level outside the School of Social Work, please locate necessary information at <https://ovpi.uga.edu/student-opportunities-resources/student-resources/student-academic-appeals/appeal-process>.

Campus Resources

Office of Student Financial Aid, 220 Holmes/Hunter Academic Building, Phone: (706) 542-6147.
<https://osfa.uga.edu/>

Students at times experience financial difficulties that threaten to delay or stop their academic progress. Apart from the various scholarships and assistantships at the SSW and the UGA, Embark UGA is an important resource that might provide some financial relief. Embark plays a key role in UGA's efforts to foster an academic community that supports and values students from diverse backgrounds. Embark doesn't serve UGA students directly, but rather connects students to existing supports through contacts with campus leaders. Embark has partnered with campus departments to develop or grow initiatives, such as the hygiene pantry currently being developed by the College of Family and Consumer Sciences, the textbook initiative developed by the Center for Teaching and Learning, and the mentoring effort developed by University Health Center. For details, see <https://ovpi.uga.edu/news/embark-uga>.

The SSW also has a Student Emergency Fund that is managed by the Dean's Office. The purpose of the Fund is to provide one (1) time financial assistance to students enrolled in a degree program at the UGA School of Social Work who are facing temporary hardship related to an emergency situation, such as an unexpected housing expense, car repair, medical bills, death of a family member, natural disaster, or other unforeseen circumstance which could interfere with their education. Request Process: Requests for support will be made in writing to the Dean and funding will be approved by the Dean. Upon approval, a check will be given to the student within five (5) business days. This award will be taxable to students who are on University of Georgia payroll. A letter from the Dean will accompany the award. Support will be awarded until the fund is depleted each year. Vendor Registration Procedures: Students must register as a UGA vendor. A vendor profile form is needed only one (1) time for each vendor paid by the University. The link to the vendor registration system is found here: <https://vendors.uga.edu/UVDB-VP/home.seam>. The student will register as an individual and answer "no" regarding acceptance of purchase orders. The UGA vendor profile form & IRS form W-9 are attached, if the student prefers not to complete the online vendor registration. Check Disbursement: Once approved by the Dean, the SSW business office will prepare a Foundation check request using the student's UGA vendor number, which is issued after the registration process is completed. Written documentation from the student and written approval from the Dean must be submitted to the business office to accompany the check request. All included information will be strictly confidential. Once the Foundation issues the check, it will be available for pick up at the SSW business office.
