We are still here for you.

ISL remains committed to providing our international students with the best service possible during this uncertain time. Our team of professionals are working extra hard to deliver high-quality service and new digital engagement opportunities for everyone!
Important resources for you...

Online Resource Library
ISL has a robust online resource library for international students to access 24/7 from any computer or mobile device. These resources are being updated regularly. We encourage you to check them out!
