<sup>1</sup>Students must choose a minimum of 2 of 4 core courses in their specialization year. These core courses are Advanced Policy Practice and Analysis (Fall), Community Engagement and Assessment (Fall), Community Organizing and Social Action (Spring), and Theory and Management of Nonprofit Organizations (Spring). These 4 core courses cover 3 Macro focus areas: (1) Community Organizing and Social Action, (2) Advanced Policy Practice, and (3) Theory and Management of Nonprofit Organizations. Students can also take core courses as their electives.

Combined Specialization students must take 2 micro requirements and 2 macro requirements; therefore, they only get one elective in the second year in the spring.
